Uniforms

During the exam period, students are required to be in full uniform. This applies not only to the time that students are writing the exam, but also to the entire time that they are on school premises.

Textbooks

Students are to return textbooks to their subject teacher at the commencement of their exam or when specified. If the textbook is lost then a cheque made payable to St. Joan of Arc can be brought to the main office. The replacement amount can be obtained from your teacher.

Access to School Premises

During the exam period, students are allowed to be on the school premises for the purposes of writing their exams or studying quietly for exams. Students may study quietly for their exams in the library (when available) or the cafeteria. The food serverly will not be open. Students are not to be in the halls during exam times. After exams are complete students are to go quietly to the library, cafeteria, or exit the building with parent's permission.

Personal Electronic Devices

These items are not permitted during the examination period. If present they are to be powered down and may either be collected by teacher, or left in the student's back pack.
